

Handling My Humanity

Part 3 – The End Of Sin

- Why do we sin?
- There is only one reason!
- We do not see sin as God sees it

We've been preaching about reasons not to sin, but tonight we want to talk about one simple truth that ties them all together.

Proverbs 16:25

²⁵There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

Hebrew Language

- In the Semitic languages, many prepositions or words having to do with direction or orientation are derived from parts of the body.
- AT THE HEAD: signifies first, beginning, top (“at head of class”)
- AT THE HAND: signifies standing next to someone
- AT THE FEET: signifies submission or worship to someone
- AT THE FACE: signifies standing before someone
- AT THE BACK: means “that which comes after”

ACHARIYTH

- Hebrew word for “back”
- meaning: back, that which comes after, result, after-effects, final consequences, end, ultimate outcome
- From our ordinary human vantage point, we cannot see that which comes after, the final consequences of a matter, the ACHARIYTH.
- But God always sees the whole picture. In His eyes, the ACHARIYTH is always in full view.
- If we want to live holy lives, it is CRUCIAL that we gain God's perspective on sin!
- 65 times in Old Testament, 13 times in Proverbs – 20% of the time!
- The whole purpose of Proverbs can be summed up in one verse:

Proverbs 19:20

Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end. (ACHARIYTH)

Proverbs 16:25 (TEXT)

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof (ACHARIYTH) are the ways of death.

The problem is that Satan only shows us the pleasure of the moment. He never shows us the ACHARIYTH.

- Remember Esau, who sold his lifelong birthright for one meal, just because he was hungry at that moment.
- Afterward, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected, though he sought it with tears. His ACHARIYTH was miserable!!

Before I yield to sin next time, I need to remember how I felt after I sinned this time! But my fallen nature just wants to think about now.

MANY VERSES IN PROVERBS WARN ABOUT THE “ACHARIYTH” OF SEXUAL IMMORALITY:

Proverbs 5:3-14

³The lips of an immoral woman are as sweet as honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil. ⁴But the result (ACHARIYTH) is as bitter as poison, sharp as a double-edged sword.

⁵Her feet go down to death; her steps lead straight to the grave. ⁶For she does not care about the path to life. She staggers down a crooked trail and doesn't even realize where it leads.

⁷So now, my sons, listen to me. Never stray from what I am about to say: ⁸Run from her! Don't go near the door of her house! ⁹If you do, you will lose your honor and hand over to merciless people everything you have achieved in life.

¹⁰Strangers will obtain your wealth, and someone else will enjoy the fruit of your labor. ¹¹Afterward (ACHARIYTH) you will groan in anguish when disease consumes your body,

¹²and you will say, “How I hated discipline! If only I had not demanded my own way! ¹³Oh, why didn't I listen to my teachers? Why didn't I pay attention to those who gave me instruction? ¹⁴I have come to the brink of utter ruin, and now I must face public disgrace.”

- No matter how good the seductive woman looks, the consequences of associating with her will be disastrous! (BURNED SUITCOAT)

In 1984, a Long Island businessman met an attractive young lady who offered him sex, making arrangements with him to meet her at a specific location another day. But when he met her and went inside the house, he was ambushed by several other men and women, then bound and gagged and brought to an abandoned apartment building in the city. There he was held captive in a room that had been specially prepared for this moment, with extra boards over the windows to muffle the noise of his cries. They began to torture and abuse this man, burning him with cigarettes over his whole body, sodomizing him with such force that some of his internal organs were severely damaged. They made him relieve himself in a diaper, and for the last five days of his life, they starved him as well. And, even though his wife agreed to pay a ransom for him, they beat him to death before the money could arrive.

IF ONLY HE COULD HAVE SEEN HIS ACHARIYTH! If only he could have seen himself screaming in agony, pleading for mercy, tortured and molested, beaten and humiliated, starved and bound – then lying motionless, a bloody corpse. If he could have only seen the final consequences of his adulterous lust, he would have never gone near that young woman, no matter how good-looking she was, no matter what physical pleasures she offered him. He would have sworn off sex for the rest of his life rather than meet such a terrible fate.

BUT HE DIDN'T SEE HIS ACHARIYTH!

- That's why the warnings in Proverbs are so urgent!

*There was a pastor who became very discouraged and as a result completely backslid one night. He ended up getting drunk and going to a party where people were exchanging sexual partners freely. And somehow, he fell so low that he had sex with another man. The next day reality set in. He agonized and grieved, repenting deeply, and gradually getting to a place of restoration. And then his ministry continued, as if everything were back to normal. But it wasn't. In that one night of terrible disobedience, he had contracted AIDS, and by the time he found out, he had infected his wife and the last child she bore him. IF ONLY HE COULD HAVE SEEN HIS ACHARIYTH! If he could have seen his family and friends grieving at his funeral as the coffin housing his emaciated body was lowered into the ground. If he could have seen his wife and son gradually withering under the onslaught of that same dread disease. If only he had seen the final end! He would have never gone near that bar where he got drunk, no matter how depressed he was. He would have said to his wife, "Tie me to the bedpost and lock the door!" Anything to keep him from that disastrous end. BUT HE DIDN'T SEE HIS ACHARIYTH!

- It's not worth it! No amount of pleasure is worth it! AND NONE OF US ARE EXEMPT FROM TEMPTATION!
- God shows us the traps in advance. Satan only shows us the bait.

Proverbs 23:31-32

³¹ Don't let the sparkle and smooth taste of wine deceive you. ³² For in the end (ACHARIYTH) it bites like a poisonous serpent; it stings like a viper.

*Today, on the streets of some of our major cities, there are winos and crack addicts laying in their own waste, their faces bloodied from a fall on the concrete, their lives totally destroyed – but five years ago they were successful doctors, or prominent lawyers, or happily married athletes. What happened? Well, they were under a lot of pressure, or some tragic event took place, or one of their friends introduced them to a new thrill. After awhile, that fix became a daily affair, and then it began to dominate them, until they ended up losing their jobs, losing their families, losing their homes, and then living on the street. IF ONLY THEY COULD HAVE SEEN THEIR ACHARIYTH! Nothing could have possibly driven them to drinking or drugs. BUT THEY DIDN'T SEE THEIR ACHARIYTH!

- Sin's end result is the total opposite of what was promised! It offered delight but brought death! It guaranteed a high but instead brought hell! (i.e. Marlboro Man – died of cancer)

Psalm 37:37-38

³⁷Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end (ACHARIYTH) of that man is peace. ³⁸But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end (ACHARIYTH) of the wicked shall be cut off.

- This is the psalm that tells us "Fret not thyself because of evildoers" (v 1) and "I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread" (v 25).
- NLT (v 38) – "But the wicked will be destroyed; they have no future."
- But the righteous have a "wonderful future!"

Jeremiah 29:11

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future!" (ACHARIYTH)

- The Bible says that the ACHARIYTH of believers will be blessed forever!
- I apologize to you if your first contact with Pentecost was a backslidden Christian, or someone who sinned with you! You've been ripped off! You've only seen the fake! They have no future and they are dragging you down with them!
- Mark Foster's story – "When God Builds You A Prayer Room"
There were two boys that got off work one Friday night in Houston, Texas. They were brothers. The youngest was 17 years old. The older brother said, "Little brother, I am so homesick to hear the pastor preach. I am so homesick to get back to Louisiana and hear the saints worship. I'm going to go home this weekend. Won't you go with me?" The little brother laughed and said, "Go ahead and go. I've got my check and it's going to be a wild weekend of wine, women and song. I'm going to have a party." So the older brother headed for Louisiana and the younger brother got on the freeway and began to thumb a ride. He was picked up by a man by the name of Elmer Wayne Hinley. He asked, "Where are you going, boy?" He replied, "I'm going to have a wild weekend. It's going to be women, wine and song." Elmer Wayne Hinley pulled a revolver out and he said, "Oh, no you're not. You're going to have a wild weekend, but it is going to be with me, and you won't live to tell about it." With that he took out some handcuffs and told the boy to put his hand out. He cuffed him to something there in the car and drove him to his house there on the outskirts of Houston.

What I am telling you was later court-documented. This was the last boy out of many that Elmer Wayne Hinley abducted. In the court room he said that there was something different about that last boy. He said, "We took him into the house and stripped him. We laid him on the floor and we handcuffed his hands and his feet to the floor. We began to mutilate that boy as we had done to those others. We would torture and mutilate them until they were just about to go out of their mind. Then I would take a 38 revolver and I'd blow their brains all over the floor." It was he and another homosexual that would homosexually torture these boys. He said, "Something this time was different. The boy screamed, cried and begged and just when it seemed like he was about to lose his mind, I took the revolver and placed it to his temple. About that time, the boy began to pray. He began to call on Jesus. There was an eerie presence that entered the room. I tried to pull the trigger but I couldn't. I was afraid so I backed off. The boy screamed, cried and prayed to God. In just a few minutes that boy began to speak a foreign language that I had never heard before. He spoke that language for awhile and then that presence seemed to leave and I was able to pull the trigger and blow his brains out." A seventeen-year-old Pentecostal preacher's boy raised in the church he was. He knew what it was to sit in church services, but he took God to his last resort. I'm not telling you that God did that to him. He did that to himself. God allowed that boy to have a prayer room right before he died. Never take God to His last resort. If you don't pray now while you have a chance, God may put you in the place where you will have to pray.

Numbers 23:10 (False Prophet Balaam)

Let me die the death of the righteous, and may my end (ACHARIYTH) be like theirs.

- Everyone wants to die the DEATH of the righteous. But to do that, you have to live the LIFE of the righteous!

Psalms 73:1-3, 17

¹Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. ²But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped. ³For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

¹⁷Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.
(ACHARIYTH)

Deuteronomy 32:29 (God's Words)

O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! (ACHARIYTH)
